Contact: kodonnell@LTCorner.com

Dr. Kristin O'Donnell graduated from Franklin and Marshall College with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology. She received a Master of Science in Education degree in Psychological Services from the University of Pennsylvania in 2000 and then completed a Doctor of Philosophy degree in School Psychology from Temple University in 2008. Dr. O'Donnell is a licensed psychologist in the state of Maryland as well as a nationally and state certified school psychologist.

Dr. O'Donnell completed her pre-doctoral internship at the Delaware County Intermediate Unit outside of Philadelphia where she worked in both the early intervention and non-public school programs. While completing her dissertation research, Dr. O'Donnell worked in the public school setting. She conducted psychoeducational evaluations, provided consultation and counseling services, and routinely advocated for the needs of her students. Dr. O'Donnell has a strong background in behavior programming and took a position at the Kennedy Krieger Institute to complete her post-doctoral supervision hours. Dr. O'Donnell joined the Learning and Therapy Corner in 2011 as the Director of Psychological Services.

Dr. O'Donnell enjoys working with students and their families as part of the multidisciplinary educational team. She takes the time necessary to understand the complexities of the presenting problem to create recommendations that will work for both the family and the school. Outside of the office, Dr. O'Donnell enjoys spending time with her family in the mountains of western Maryland and always cheers on the Baltimore Ravens and the Washington Capitals.
